

DESIRE Collection

Desire is a collection entirely made in rattan, a versatile and timeless material. All the furnishings are built on a dense and regular structure: the rattan forms a sort of “armor” that becomes cozy in the armchair and creates a strong setting in the other furnishings, giving rise to a design that you will love at first glance, a true object of desire. Armchair with large cushion for the seat and the backrest. The armrests are composed of rattan strips with a natural, cozy and soft pigmented finishing. Round garden table made entirely of rattan, built and modeled to complete the furnishing of a relaxation corner for coffee or tea breaks. Shelving for books or garden tools created entirely in rattan. What was missing to keep your outdoor space in order with style.
