

RING Collection

The RING collection is a new line of chairs and sofas in upholstered fabric.

The fabric gives them a round and extremely soft shape, just as if the structure of the chairs would be embraced by the covering material. In contrast to the Boxer line presented last year, this line “embraces” the round section wooden structure, making it almost invisible.

The backseats, in particular, are fully integrated in the anatomy of the piece of furniture: at a glance, their thickness becomes the essential (and the most comfortable!) part of the sofa or of the chair.
